

ITUC GLOBAL RIGHTS INDEX 2015

Violations of workers' rights

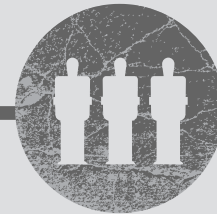

58%

of countries exclude workers from labour law

70%

of countries have workers who have no right to strike

60%

of countries deny workers collective bargaining

52%

of countries deny workers access to rule of law

Results by region

- 1 Irregular violation of rights
- 2 Repeated violation of rights
- 3 Regular violation of rights
- 4 Systematic violation of rights
- 5 No guarantee of rights
- 5+ No guarantee of rights due to the breakdown of the rule of law
- No data

The 2015 ITUC Global Rights Index covers 141 countries, reporting takes place April 2014 – March 2015. The ITUC documents violations of internationally recognised collective labour rights by governments and employers, each country is analysed against a list of 97 indicators derived from ILO conventions and jurisprudence and represents violations of workers' rights in law and practice.